Opening the Doors: the hidden life of carers

$15 (incl GST & P&P)
$12 if collected from the Centre

As part of our work with carers we have been running writing workshops in which each person has been writing the story of his or her personal experiences as a carer. Tapping into their creative sides and working with professional writers has helped participants to acknowledge the journey they have taken as carers and to confront with enthusiasm the wide range of emotions every carer has to deal with. The result is this touching and inspiring book which we hope will be a valuable resource to other carers and increase community recognition of the importance of the carers' role.
