

PART-TIME PLAYGROUP SUPPORT WORKER

We are looking for an enthusiastic and experienced support worker to join our Family Services team.

Holdsworth provides a range of services to families with young children with the aim of assisting them to deal effectively with the daily demands of parenting. We seek to promote effective parenting skills through building on strengths and social supports. The principal program in Family Services is our dynamic and vibrant Playgroup that operates on weekday mornings during school terms at our centre in Woollahra in Sydney's eastern suburbs.

This position is required to work weekday mornings, 9am to 1pm, in school terms only and would suit someone whose personal commitments fit that timeframe.

Please check our website www.holdsworth.org.au for further information and to download a position description before applying.

You need to be a cheerful, well-organised and outgoing person who has an interest in children and families. Qualifications in health, social welfare or early childhood education, first aid certificate and relevant experience all highly desirable.

Please apply by email to info@holdsworth.org.au by 5pm Monday 12 July.

We celebrate diversity. Appointment subject to Police and Working with Children checks.
